

General Guidelines for Video Presentation

WORLDCON 2026

1. Duration and Structure

- Each participant will be allocated 6 minutes for the video presentation, followed by 2 minutes for questions and academic discussion.
 - The presentation display will automatically terminate at the completion of 8 minutes.
 - The video presentation must strictly adhere to the 6-minute time limit. Exceeding this duration will not be permitted under any circumstances.
-

2. Presentation Format and Content Requirements

- Participants are encouraged to develop a professionally structured video presentation, utilizing innovative and academically appropriate formats.
 - Multi-screen layouts are permissible (e.g., one screen displaying presentation slides while another displays the presenter or referenced literature).
 - The first slide must clearly state:
 - Title of the presentation
 - Name(s) of the author(s)
 - Institutional affiliation(s)
 - All presentations must be delivered exclusively in English.
 - Content should demonstrate scientific accuracy, logical organization, and evidence-based referencing where applicable.
-

3. Audio-Visual Specifications

- The use of background music is strictly prohibited.
 - Audio narration must be:
 - Clear and professionally articulated
 - Free from distortion or background noise
 - Precisely synchronized with the visual material
 - All visual elements, including text, tables, figures, and clinical images, must be:
 - Legible
 - Appropriately labeled
 - Of high resolution to ensure clarity
-

4. File Format and Technical Requirements

- The recommended file format for submission is MP4.
 - If slide-based content is utilized, slides should be prepared using Microsoft PowerPoint to ensure compatibility.
 - Participants are strongly advised to carry their presentation file on a USB storage device as a backup to prevent technical contingencies.
-

5. Time Management and Evaluation Protocol

- Participants are expected to rehearse and structure their presentation to ensure strict compliance with the allotted timeframe.
 - The judging panel will adhere rigorously to the prescribed time schedule in order to maintain fairness, uniformity, and academic integrity across all presentations.
-